Helpless As a Baby

Valley Heights Va.—Mrs. Jennie B. Kirby, in a letter from the place, says: "I was sick in bed for nine months, with a womanly trouble, I was so weak and helpless, at times, that I could not raise my head off the pillow. I commenced to take Cardui, and I saw it was helping me, at once. Now I work all day. As a tonic, for weak women, nothing has been found, for fifty years, to take the place of Cardui. It will surely do you good. Cardui is prepared from vegetable ingredients, and has a specific curative effect on the womanly organs. Try a bottle today. At your druggist's—Advertisement.

HEAT UNKING.

"Did you ever notice," said Miss Penchly, "that good-looking people are seldom bright and bright people are seldom good looking?"
"Yes," replied young Knox. "By the way, if you could have your choice, which would you rather be—bright or good looking?"

SO FOOLISH.

"She's neglecting her game of bridge dreadfully."
"Why is she doing that?"
"Some silly excuse. Says the children need her, I believe."

IT DOETH, INDEED.

It doth require a man of means To keep up two or three machines, And as the flying seasons pass Provide each one of them with "gas."

Reasonable Fear.

"Why are you so afraid that your grandfather, of all in the family, should be in danger of getting infantile paralysis?"

"Because, you see, he's in his second childhood."

Well Posted.

"Do you believe in first aid to the injured?"
"You bet we do. We always keep it in the house."

Constipation Causes Bad Skin.

A dull and pimply skin is due to a sluggish bowel movement. Correct this condition and clear your complexion with Dr. King's New Life Pills. This mild laxative taken at bedtime will assure you a full, free, non-irritating movement in the morning. Drive out the dull, listless feeling resulting from overloaded intestines and sluggish liver. Get a bottle to-day. At all Druggists, 25c.—Advertisement.

The Bullies.

I stood on the bridge at midnight, as the clocks were striking the hour; they struck it in cottage and palace, they struck it in cellar and tower. Then I cried out in hot indignation: "Oh, clocks, great in number and power, I think you're heartless and cruel, to strike a weak and defenseless hour."—Indianapolis Star.

WONDERFUL TONIC IS SMILE

Does Wonders in Smoothing Out the Rough Places That Are Met on Life's Journey.

A smile is the bright green carpet of grass that covers the brown earth—the first sign that winter is over, the Telephone News says.

A smile is the rippling softly tinted bloom that covers the erstwhile bare, black limbs of the fruit trees.

A smile is the light, feathery sheen of green that bursts from the brown buds of bush, plant and tree with the first warm rays of the springtime sun.

Like it? Well, here's some more!

A smile is the song of a meadow lark to its mate as together they build their nest.

A smile is the bright warm sunlight after the gentle pattering shower; it changes the very face of nature, transporting the gloom into the joyousness of a wonderful day.

So nature smiles while heavy hearts grow light, and life is new again!

If nature's smile has such a potency, what may we not expect from a smiling human countenance or the human "voice with the smile?"

There's a "Miss Benevolence" at the head of the "Complaint Bureau" of a large institution, so vouchers a contemporary who is all but stone deaf! Important points of the bitter and often unreasonable arguments of red-faced, explosive complainants are handed to her on memoranda by a clerk who stands in back and listens. But "Miss Benevolence," all unaware of the stormy words hurled at her, smiles and smiles and smiles. And then smiles some more, with never a smirk, 'til the storm of unreason—and, you know, it's apt as not to be unreason—is over.

And the storm always does pass by, for she never loses that gentle composure, but smiles and returns smiling, soft spoken words for wrathful and bitter invective.

Don't think that a mouth with up-turned corners denotes weakness or that there's such a thing as being too proud to grin; for you can fight the good fight better when you smile. There was a time when grim visaged, deep chested men once roamed the earth, whose mighty roar set whole cities trembling in their path. But, bless your heart, they have gone the way of all bugbears of the past! The "stuffed club" of benevolence and good humor does most of the winning these days.

Sloan's Liniment Eases Pain.

Sloan's Liniment is first thought of mothers for bumps, bruises and pains that are continually happening to children. It quickly penetrates and soothes without rubbing. Cleaner and more effective than many plasters or ointments. For rheumatic aches, neuralgia pain and that grippy soreness after colds, Sloan's Liniment gives prompt relief. Have a bottle handy for bruises, strains, sprains and all external pain. For the thousands whose work calls them outdoors, the pains and aches following exposure are relieved by Sloan's Liniment. "Let Your Light Shine."

Let us always remember that hope in us kindles hope in others, that smiles, that trust creates trust, that goodness awakens goodness, that love awakens love, and that in unseen but sure ways integrity, strength and honor in us plant seeds of honor, strength and integrity in numberless other lives, many of whom we may know nothing of.—J. T. Sutherland.

LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS

DO YOU know of anyone who is old enough to read, who has not seen that sign at a railroad crossing?

If everyone has seen it at some time or other, then why doesn't the railroad let the sign rot away? Why does the railroad company continue to keep those signs at every crossing?

Maybe you think, Mr. Merchant, "Most everybody knows my store, I don't have to advertise."

Your store and your goods need more advertising than the railroads need to warn people to "Look Out for the Cars."

Nothing is ever completed in the advertising world.

The Department Stores are a very good example—they are continually advertising—and they are continually doing a good business.

If it pays to run a few ads around about Christmas time, it certainly will pay you to run advertisements about all the time.

It's just business, that's all, to
